

Production Area:
highest Hills of Marsala.

Grapes:
Grillo Sicilia Igt

Colour:
bright delicate yellow with green hints.

Bouquet:
citrous, with herbal, and delicate acacia notes.

Taste:
refreshing, delicate and persistent mineral acidity.

Service:
always well chilled.

Food Suggestions:
ideal with fish, white meats and Asian food.

Production Area:

highest Hills of Marsala.

Grapes:

Nero d'Avola Igt.

Colour:

deep garnet red with dark core.

Bouquet:

rich and ripe forest fruits, elegant, complex and yet very fruit driven.

Taste:

full body with smooth tannins, velvety and persistent.

Service:

always well chilled.

Food Suggestions:

ideal partner with tasty dishes and seasoned cheeses.

Decanter

WORLD WINE AWARDS 2012

This is to certify that

Cantine Francesco Minini, Nero d'Avola Tank no 76, Sicily 2011

has been judged by the world's best wine professionals in the most comprehensive and authoritative wine competition in the world, and has been awarded

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to be 'Steven Spurrier'.

STEVEN SPURRIER, CHAIRMAN

2012

Production Area:

the Western part of Sicily in the area of Salemi.

Grapes:

100% Nero d'Avola grapes left to dry a little longer on the trees.

Colour:

bright ruby red.

Bouquet:

rich and ripe red fruits, the nose is appealing with spicy hints.

Taste:

full and soft but lively with red fruits and blueberries.

Service:

at room temperature.

Food Suggestions:

ideal partner to Mediterranean pastas, red meats but it is perfect on its own.

Production Area:

the heart of Salento area in the South-East part of Apulia.

Grapes:

100% Primitivo grapes, vines are normally very old (25/30 years old) the breeding system is so called 'Alberello' (small single tree).

Colour:

deep purple red with bright reflects.

Bouquet:

rich and ripe red fruits, elegant, complex of Mediterranean pine-trees avours.

Taste:

the power of its body astonishes you with the smoothness of its tannins. Velvety and persistent.

Service:

at room temperature.

Food Suggestions:

ideal partner with tasty dishes and seasoned cheeses and it is magic as a conversation wine.