

Production Area:

This Syrah grows on sandy soils caressed by the sea breeze of Western Sicily.

Grapes:

“Volupta” BIO world: this project originates from an accurate selection of grapes grown and vinified according to the organic procedures. The land where the “Volupta” vines are grown has a natural aptitude thanks to the warm sun rays and the gentle marine breeze caressing the vineyards. This magic combination enables a perfect environment during all grapes' life and their maturation.

Colour & Bouquet:

Its purple color magically embraces unique scents of red fruits, olives, and lavender notes.

Taste:

Its ripening makes it pleasantly smooth and fresh at the same time.

Food Suggestions:

Perfect with tasty dishes of the Mediterranean tradition.
