

Production Area:

Thrilled by the success we had from MEA CULPA we were encouraged to search for a further evolution and create another MEA CULPA, il RIMORSO, which had to be a passionate flirt between elegance and opulence. The two production regions are accurately the same, Apulia and Sicily.

Grapes:

The Salento is the most important area but in this case the ancient “Alberello” bunches are picked and let to dry on trellis. This way allows a better concentration of fruit and its structure is much more enhanced. And again Sicily gives its important contribution with Syrah.

Colour:

Gloomy red with an almost creamy perception.

Bouquet:

Fully ripen red fruits with notes of blackberries gently sweet.

Taste:

Sumptuous in its deep richness which recalls notes of red fruits and light hints of spices.

Service:

Serve at 16 - 18° C.

Food Suggestions:

perfect with a tasty cuisine like BBQ meat and seasoned cheese.
